

Onam and monsoon fairs are regularly organised by ATIC in August- September respectively every year. Temporary stalls are erected for the sale of vegetables, fruits, coconut and farm produce of the different research stations under KAU. The usual sale of planting materials, bio control agents and value added products are also undertaken. All products are sold at reasonable rates and this provides relief to the general public.

